

Soundcheck Blind Date Questionnaire

1) Describe your music in three words or less. Bonus points for creative answers.

Coming to America

2) What is the last album you bought?

Mamie Minch "Razorburn Blues"

3) Do you believe in love at first listen? Why/why not?

Some of my favorite ~~musicians~~ albums I didn't totally love the first time I heard them. But something about the music made me want to come back to it again and soon I couldn't stop listening. In the same vein, some records that seemed brilliant the first time I heard them lost their appeal after a couple more spins in the CD player.

4) What is the most interesting thing about you?

My friend Liam says I'm the most macho person he knows because I like to fix things and take the lead. That may be true, but I'm also a vegan and I do Zen meditation. I guess I'm just a multi-faceted person.

4) Do you want albums/Are you planning to make more albums?

Yes. I'm into CD babies. I'm not ready for another one for a while yet. This first one was a lot of work! Hopefully I'll have some more help for my next record.

5) Who was your first musical crush?

Michael Jackson, back before I came to America.

6) If you could be any musician for a day, who would it be and why?

Hildegard von Bingen. She claimed that the music she wrote came directly from God. I wonder what that's like. She was also knowledgeable and talented in a variety of areas. And she was a woman inhabiting what were mostly men's realms. And I'd get to time travel 900 years into the past.
